Talking Books Presentation at Cottonwood Public Library

Are you unable to read the printed word? Or perhaps you can't hold a book? The Arizona Talking Book Library might be for you!

A representative from the Arizona Talking Book Library will be at the Cottonwood Public Library to discuss their free audio listening services on Friday, August 8th from 10:30 to 11:30 am. The talking books program is free to people who are unable to read the printed word or cannot manage to hold a book.

The Arizona Talking Book Library is a lending library that provides audio books and magazines, movies with audio descriptions, and Braille books by postage free mail. They loan special equipment to play audio books and also have audio and book downloads.

For more information on this event, contact Vanessa Ward, Library Manager at 928-340-2780.
